Dear Ms. Merlitz,

Please see the attached letter from my boss [REDACTED] at [REDACTED]. I did not tell him any details about the upcoming trial but only that I could potentially be missing some substantial time at work. He is asking that I be dismissed because of the hardship our company would suffer in my absence at this time. I apologies for this last minute request but [REDACTED] was quite concerned about me being gone from work for an extended length of time. In all honesty I have to agree with him and hope you will be able to dismiss me from this case.

Please reply back to let me know if I still need to appear at the court house on Thursday, May 6th.

Thank you,

[REDACTED]

To whom it may concern:

I am writing on behalf of [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] for our Arizona Region. [REDACTED] absence at this time would be an extreme hardship on our company.

[REDACTED] is the executive in charge and essential to the success of our three Arizona stores, which have over 300 employees and are expected to do over $40 million in sales in 2010. [REDACTED] expertise and experience is also essential to the effective progress we need to make to open a [REDACTED] [REDACTED] We are currently in the final stages of planning layout, equipment needs, overall mechanical and construction of this new 31,000 square foot location.

For all of the above reasons, I respectfully request that [REDACTED] be excused from Jury Duty.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
